BUILDING DETAILS

Collingwood has one of the busiest downtown cores in the entire province, famous for a great number of eateries and restaurants. It benefits not only from the strong and constantly growing population, but also from the tourists year round.

Property Details: This is a standalone building with great visibility to Pine Street. There is one private parking space, however there is a ton of free street parking directly in front of the restaurant on both sides of the street. There are also lots of municipal lots in the area.

This unit is not too large and very easy to run with limited staff and labour. Ideal for many different concepts, cuisines, and/or franchises.

Open to different uses and there are no restrictions on the lease.
