BUILDING DETAILS

Bloorcourt Village is one of Toronto's most vibrant culinary neighborhoods, known for its eclectic mix of restaurants, cafés, and local shops that draw both residents and visitors year-round. The area has a strong reputation for food and nightlife, making it an ideal setting for a quick service restaurant looking to tap into a steady stream of hungry customers.

Being fully licensed for 19 patrons adds a unique advantage, allowing this QSR to offer dine-in service in a high-energy environment. Just steps away from the winner of Canada's Best Bar, the location benefits from the evening and weekend crowd, creating opportunities to pair quality food offerings with one of the city's most celebrated social scenes.

Operators in this area gain more than just a space—they gain a foothold in a thriving community where culinary innovation and lively street culture meet. With Bloorcourt Village continuing to grow as a hotspot for both locals and visitors, a licensed QSR here provides not only strong revenue potential but also a chance to be part of one of Toronto's most exciting food destinations.
