BUILDING DETAILS

Located in the heart of downtown Bolton along Queen Street (Highway 50), this plaza benefits from excellent exposure on one of the area's main commercial corridors. The surrounding neighborhood is a strong mix of residential growth and established retail, drawing consistent traffic from local residents, commuters, and nearby businesses. This is a highly accessible location with steady vehicle flow and strong visibility from the street.

The plaza is well-maintained and anchored by a variety of complementary tenants, creating a built-in customer base and reliable daily foot traffic. Prominent signage on both the unit and the pylon ensures maximum brand exposure, while the layout of the centre allows for easy in-and-out access. Ample parking throughout the plaza makes it convenient for dine-in, takeout, and delivery drivers alike.

Positioned within a growing community just northwest of the GTA, Bolton continues to see residential expansion and increasing demand for quality food service options. The area is easily accessible via major roadways and serves as a key hub for Caledon and surrounding regions, offering long-term stability and growth potential for operators looking to establish themselves in a busy suburban market.
