BUILDING DETAILS

This is a standalone building in the very prosperous south end of London, specifically the Southdale/White Oaks neighbourhoods, and just a 5 minute drive from downtown London.

Located directly across the street from the Parkwood Hospital complex, in a good quality commercial area of London, along an arterial road. The site is in fantastic condition and the restaurant is fully renovated and in outstanding shape.

Property Details: This building is located in a very busy area dominated by vehicles and public transportation. There is a massive hospital across the street and many offices in the immediate area.

Built on a concrete pad but featuring a basement that is much smaller than the upstairs that has the walk-in fridges, storage, prep area, and more.
